1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Asserne in Pautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be occupied by only a rear unit of not more than company size. Gate guards were red-bordered black equalets with tank insignia. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanteric maserne in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66), were lighted in the evening of 22 May, it still seemed to be occupied to capacity Two AA guns of about 60-mm with outrigger-type mounts and muzzle brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck in the billeting area. (2) 3. Between 19 May and 5 June, the Panzer Maserne in Maneuz (N 52/A 41)appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, despit the fact that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the finitalistic had gone to Scenigsbrueck. Sumits from the Panzer Maserne were being rotated to Moonigsbrueck for training. The recruit at the installation were engaged in intensive basic drill, training in firing and driver schooling. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiers were going to Moonigsbrueck by truck probably for firing and combat practice. The troops remaining at the installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 tasks. The six tasks previously reported were still parked in the barracks wand. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Saserne at Kamenz, the installation second to be only 25 percent occupied. Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3)	Markaya maaseeliaa Karaa Coraa ka k
DATE PREPARED 5 July 1951 DATE PREPARED 5 July 1951 SEFERENCES AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 8 NPE) SOX. 1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Asserme in Pautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be recupied by only a rear unit of not more than company size, Gate guards were red-bordered black equilets with teak ineignia. (1) 2. As almost all of the window of 22 may, it still seemed to be occupied to expectly were lighted in the svening of 22 may, it still seemed to be occupied to capacity. Two AA gens of about 50-mm with outrigran-type mounts and musule brakes were mark in front of the buildings anoth of the barracks yard. Truck in the billeting area. (2) 3. Between 19 may and 5 June, the Panzer maserme in Kamers (N 52/A M) appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, deeply the fact that not less than one-third of the troops previously observed in the installation had gone to Board strucks. 1. The first part were being related to Sondigobrasek for troinming. The recruit at the installation were capacity in intensive basic drill, treating in firing and chiver schooling. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiors were going to occupient on being related to more graph in intensive basic drill, treating in firing and chiver schooling. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiors were going to occupient were engaged in driving practice with about 12 tanks. The circumstance of several marked and the harracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric maserue at Kamens, to including activity was observed. (3) According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric maserue at Kamens, to including activity was observed. (3) According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric maserue at Kamens, to including activity was observed. (3) Since the beginning of days, one lighted parts.	MARIONI RALIETTERA
DATE PREPARED 5 July 1951 EFFERENCES AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. a WPE) SOX EMARKS 50X 1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Asserne in Fautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be excupted by only a rear unit of not more than company size, date guards were red-bordered black equalets with tank inauguta. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanteric Maserne in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66) Were lighted in the evening of 22 May, it still seemed to be occupted to capacity from AA guas of about 68-mm with outrigger-type mounts and mazele brakes were used in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck in the billeting ares. (2) 3. Hetween 19 May and 5 June, the Maner Maserne in Kameus (N 52/A 11) Appeared to be occupted to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, despite the fact that not less than one-third of the troops previously observed in the installation had gone to Meeningsbrack. The fact that not less than one-third of the troops previously observed in the installation had gone to Meeningsbrack. The fact which had been to a send of the company of the fact of	KERKET THEATERS
DATE PREPARED 5 July 1951 EFFERENCES AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 4 NPE) 50X EMARKS 50X 1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Asserne in Pautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be recupied by only a rear unit of not more than company size, date guards were red-bordered black equalets with tank insignie. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanterie Macerne in Chemnitz (8 51/K 66) Five AA guas of about 58-mm with outriggar-type mounts and mazale brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck in the billeting area. (2) 3. Between 19 May and 5 June, the Fanser Macerne in Kamenz (8 52/A 11) appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 701 recruits, deeplit the fact that not less than one-third of the troops previously observed in the installation had gone to Recruisbrack. The fanser Macerne were being rotated to Socialgebrasek for training. The recruit at the installation were engaged in intensive basic drill, treiting in firing and coulat gractice. He troops remaining to incompletely probably for firing and coulat gractics. He troops remaining to installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 table. The six tables previously reported were engaged in driving practice with about 12 table. The six tables previously reported were still particed in the barracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Maserne at Kamens, the installation second to be only 25 percent occupied, Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3) According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Maserne at Kamens, the installation second to be only 25 percent occupied, Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3)	KBMA(P/明保品款/1995)
DATE PREPARED 5 July 1951 EFFERENCES AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. a MyE) 50X 50X 1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Asserme in Mautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be recupied by only a rear unit of not more than company size. Gate guards were red-bordered black openies with tank ineagula. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanterie Maserme in Chemnitz (8 51/K 66) 50X were lighted in the evening of 22 May, it still second to be occupied to capacity five AA guas of about 88-mm with outriggar-type mounts and musule brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck in the billeting area. (2) 3. Between 19 May and 5 June, the Jamer Maserme in Kameuz (N 52/A M1) appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 701 recruits, despit the fact that not loss than one-third of the troops previously observed in the installation had gone to Recruishmeck. 1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Maserme Maserme in Kameuz (N 52/A M1) appeared to the occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 701 recruits, deptiting fact that not loss than one-third of the troops previously observed in the installation had gone to Recruishmeck. 1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Maserme Mase
AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE) 50X 1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Asserne in Fautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be recorded by only a rear unit of not more than company size, date guards were red-bordered black apaulets with tank insignia, (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanteric Maserne in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66) were lighted in the evening of 22 May, it still seemed in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66) were lighted in the avening of 22 May, it still seemed to be occupied to capacity Two AA guns of about 65-cm with outrigger-type mounts and muzzle brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck 3. Between 19 May and 5 June, the Pauzer Maserne in Kamenz (N 52/A 1) appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 Termits, deep in the fact that not less than one-third of the troops previously observed in the installation and group to Seemigemeek. In the Panzar Asserne were being rotated to Goodisphrueck for training, the recent at the installation were engaged in the two back drill, training and chiver schooling. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiers were going to Goodisphrueck by true probably for firing and contact practices, the troops recalling at the installation mark engaged in driving practice with about 12 take. The six tanks previously recorded were still partied in the barracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Asserne at Kamenz, the installation seemed to be only 25 percent occupied. Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. 500	Cresson de arrora de la companya de
2 ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE) 2 MARKS 50X 1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Asserme in Fautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be recupied by only a rear unit of not more than company size. Gate guards more red-bordered black opaulets with tank inagents. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanteric Asserme in Thermitz (N 51/K 60), were lighted in the evening of 22 May, it utill seemed no eccupied to capacity for Aguns of about 62-may with outrigger-type mounts and mazzle brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck 3. Hetween 19 May and 5 June, the Fancer Asserme in Kamens (N 52/A th) appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, depair the fact that not less than one-third of the troops previously observed in the installation and groun to Seemigenreck. 1. The Fancer Asserme were being related to Soonigebrusch for training. The recruit at the installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 tasks. The six tanks previously recorded were still parked in the harracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Asserme at Kamens, to inctallation seemed to be only 25 percent occupied. Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3) 4. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Asserme at Kamens, to inctallation seemed to be only 25 percent occupied. Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3) 4. Since the beginning of June, the determine of June, on the June of June of June 15 June 1	A STATE OF THE STA
1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Asserne in Mautzen (0 52/A 60) secund to be recupied by only a rear unit of not more than company size. Gate guards were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanteric Maserne in Chemnitz (9 51/K 66), were lighted in the evening of 22 May, it still seemed to be occupied to capacity Two AA guns of about 60-mm with outrigan-type mounts and muzals brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck in the billeting area. (2) 3. Metween 19 May and 5 June, the Fanzer Maserne in Kamenz (N 52/A 41)appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, despit the fact that not lose than one-third of the troops previously observed in the installation had gone to Moenigsbrueck. The Mazer Maserne were being rotated to Moenigsbrueck for troinming. The recruit at the installation more capaged in intensive basic drill, training in firing and driver schooling, Groups of 20 to 30 solidors were going to Moenigsbrueck by true probably for firing and combat practice. The troops remaining at his installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 talks. The six tasks previously reported were still narked in the harracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Maserne at Kamenz, the installation assend to be only 25 percent occupied, Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed.	MELIFE
1. On 11 May 1251, the Musaren Asserne in Fautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be accupied by only a rear unit of not more than company size. Gate guards were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignie. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanteric Maserie in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66), were lighted in the evening of 22 May, it still seemed to be occupied to capacity Two AA gans of about 68-mm with outriggs—type mounts and muzale brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck in the billeting area. (2) 3. Between 19 May and 5 June, the Manzer Maserne in Kameuz (N 52/A hl)appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, deepit the fact that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the installation had gone to Moeningsbrack. The fractional that is installation more engaged in intensive basic drill, treating in firing and driver schooling. Oroups of 20 to 30 soldiers were going to moeningsbrack by true probably for firing and combat practice. We troops remaining a to installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 tails. The six tasks proviously reported were still parked in the harracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Maserne at Kamens, t installation seamed to be only 25 percent occupied, Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3) 500	•
1. On 11 May 1051, the Musaren Kaserne in Fautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be recupied by only a rear unit of not more than company size. Gate guards were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infarteric Maserne in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66), were lighted in the svening of 22 May, it still seemed to be occupied to capacity Two AA guns of about 63-mm with outriguer-type mounts and muzzle brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck in the billeting area. (2) 3. Between 19 May and 5 June, the Panzer Maserne in Kamenz (N 52/A bl)appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, despit the fact that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the fact that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the fact that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the facts that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the facts that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the facts that not less than one-third of the troops proviously for firing and combat practice. The triops retailing at the installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 table. The six tables previously reported were still parked in the harracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteria Maserne at Kamenz, tinetallation second to be only 25 percent occupied. Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3)	To proper second
1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Asserne in Fautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be recupied by only a rear unit of not more than company size. Gate guards were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanterie Baserne in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66). Were lighted in the svening of 22 May, it still seemed to be occupied to capacity Two AA guns of about 68-ma with outrigger-type mounts and mazzle brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck 3. Between 19 May and 5 June, the Panzer Baserne in Kameuz (N 52/A hl)appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, despit the fact that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the installation had gone to Boenigsbrueck. Soldiers become were being rotated to Boenigsbrueck for training. The recruit at the installation were engaged in intensive basic drill, training in firing and drilver schooling. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiers were going to Boenigsbrueck by true probably for firing and combat practice. The troops remaining at the installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 tanks. The six tanks previously reported were still parked in the barracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Baserne at Kamenz, tinetallation second to be only 25 percent occupied. Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3)	Janes Park
1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Asserne in Fautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be recupied by only a rear unit of not more than company size. Cate guards were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanterie Haserne in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66). Were lighted in the svening of 22 May, it still seemed to be occupied to capacity Two Aa guns of about 68-mm with outrigger-type mounts and mazzle brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck 3. Between 19 May and 5 June, the Panzer Maserne in Kameuz (N 52/A hl)appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, despit the fact that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the installation had gone to Recentlyshmeck. Solvent Manager Maserne were being rotated to Recently basic drill, training the remnit at the installation were engaged in intensive basic drill, training in firing and driver schooling. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiers were going to Recently true probably for firing and combat practice. The troops remaining at the installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 tables. The six tables previously reported were still parked in the harracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Maserne at Kamenz, tinetallation second to be only 25 percent occupied. Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3)	s Maddy ayr day caarle
1. On 11 May 1751, the Musaren Asserne in Fautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be recupied by only a rear unit of not more than company size. Cate guards were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanterie Maserne in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66). Were lighted in the seeming of 22 May, it still seemed to be occupied to capacity Two Aa guas of about 63-ma with outrigger-type mounts and mazzle brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck 3. Between 19 May and 5 June, the Panzer Maserne in Kameuz (N 52/A hl)appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, despit the fact that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the installation had gone to Reenigsbrueck. Soldiers were going to Reenigsbrueck for training. The recruit at the installation were engaged in intensive basic drill, training in firing and driver schooling. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiers were going to Reenigsbrueck by true probably for firing and combat practice. The troops remaining at the installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 tanks. The six tanks previously reported were still parked in the barracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Maserne at Kamenz, tinestallation second to be only 25 percent occupied. Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3)
1. On 11 May 1951, the Musaren Asserne in Fautzen (0 52/A 60) seemed to be recupied by only a rear unit of not more than company size. Cate guards were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanterie Maserne in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66). Were lighted in the evening of 22 May, it still seemed to be occupied to capacity Two Aa guas of about 66-mm with outrigger-type mounts and muzzle brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck in the billeting area. (2) 3. Between 19 May and 5 June, the Panzer Maserne in Kameuz (N 52/A 11)appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, despit the fact that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the installation had gone to Moenigsbrack. Units from the Panzer Maserne were being rotated to Moenigsbrack for training. The recruit at the installation were engaged in intensive basic drill, training in firing and driver schooling. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiers were going to Moenigsbrack by true probably for firing and combat practice. The troops remaining at the installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 tanks. The six tanks previously reported were still parked in the barracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Maserne at Kamenz, tinctallation second to be only 25 percent occupied. Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3)	meminin telanir est ari
by only a rear unit of not more than company size. Gate guards were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignts. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanteric Gaserme in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66), 50) were lighted in the evening of 22 way, it still seemed to be occupied to capacity five AA guns of about 80-mm with outrigger-type mounts and muzzle brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck in the billeting area. (2) 3. Between 19 way and 5 June, the Panzer Paserne in Kameuz (N 52/A 41)appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, despit the fact that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the installation had gone to Boenigsbrack. The Panzer Paserne were being rotated to Boenigsbrack for training. The recruit at the installation were engaged in intensive basic drill, training in firing and driver schooling. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiers were going to Boenigsbrack by true probably for firing and combat gractice. The troops remaining at the installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 tanks. The six tanks previously reported were still parked in the barracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Gaserne at Kamenz, t installation second to be only 25 percent occupied. Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3) 500	1-HUN
by only a rear unit of not more than company size. Gate guards were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignts. (1) 2. As almost all of the windows of the Infanteric Gaserie in Chemnitz (N 51/K 66), 50) were lighted in the evening of 22 way, it still seemed to be occupied to capacity five AA gens of about 60-mm with outrigger-type mounts and muzzle brakes were park in front of the buildings north of the barracks yard. Truck in the billeting area. (2) 3. Between 19 way and 5 June, the Panzer Waserne in Kameuz (N 52/A 41) appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, despit the fact that not less than one-third of the troops proviously observed in the installation had gone to Geomigsbrack. The Panzer Waserne were being rotated to Goodigsbracek for training. Who recruits at the installation were engaged in intensive basic drill, training in firing and driver schooling. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiers were going to Geomigsbrack by true probably for firing and combat gractice. The troops remaining at the installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 tanks. The six tanks previously reported were still parked in the barracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric Gaserne at Kamenz, t installation secund to be only 25 percent occupied. Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. (3) 502 Between 19 may and 5 June, the Panzer maserne in Kameuz (N 52/A 41)appeared to be occupied to capacity by about 1,500 troops, including 600 to 700 recruits, despit the fact that not less than one—third of the troops proviously observed in the installation had gone to Noenigsbrueck. The Panzer maserne were being rotated to meenigsbrueck for training. The recruit at the installation were engaged in intensive basic drill, training in firing and driver schooling. Groups of 20 to 30 soldiers were going to Moenigsbrueck by true probably for firing and combat practice. The troops remaining at the installation were engaged in driving practice with about 12 tanks. The six tanks previously reported were still parked in the barracks ward. According to the number of windows lighted in the Infanteric maserne at Kamenz, t installation second to be only 25 percent occupied. Prior to 5 June, no regular training activity was observed. Since the beginning of June, one Walterson training activity was observed. (3) 4. since the beginning of June, one Unior Andrewsy	e ni s training activity was observed. (3) 4. since the beginning of June, one Unior Andrewsy training activity was observed. (3) 4. since the beginning of June, one Union Andrewsy
training activity was observed. (3) 4. since the beginning of June, one Union Andrewsy 40 since the beginning of June, and Union Andrewer
rany low worder barrocks building amenz, (4)
CLASSIFICATION SECRET/COMPONING OFFICIALS CHILY	(1-HL
	(1-HL
No Change In Class.	(1-HL
Declaration of the control of the co	(1-HL
States Charged To: YS 50X1-HUM	(1-HL

5.	The troops training there this year. No changes were observed with the Soviet-occupied installations in Riesa (N 52/E 81). The Von der Goltz Kaserne quartered only a small rear detail.	50X1-HUM 50X1-HUM 50X1-HUM
00	Comments. 50X1-HU	JM
(1)	The information confirms the previous belief that the Lith Cds Tank Regt of	f the 100	11th GCs Tank Div which is carried in the Husaren Raserne, Bautzen, is at
	Koenigsbrueck.	50X1-HUM
(2)	elenk	ents
	of the unidentified AM Div, possibly the 6th Gds, of the GOFG left the In	fanterie Kareme in Chemnita by rail for Koenigsbrueck on 30 Eay 1951.
(3)	the elements of the 11th Gds Tank Div from the Panzer	* 50V1 LIIM
1,23	Asseme in Aanenz are being rotated to Koonigsbruck is given credence. How	rever.
	the 600 to 700 recruits have been locate	ed in the Infanterie Asserne in May 1951.	50X1-HUM
	discrepancies regarding the designation of the two barras	cks installations, which are situated side by side. The northern of the two installations is carried as the Panzer Kaserne and the southern as the Infi	antaria
	"aserne	50X1-HUM
(4)	Though there are numerous officers named Andreyev, it is possible that Laj
,	Andreyev (fnu) is the captain of the same name who was identified with a	tank
	unit in Bautzen in November 1949, He may either belong to the 11th Cds Tari	k: 135 w 50X1-HHM
	or to the First Ods Mecz Army,	30X1-110W
		50Y1 LIIM

